KILLERS:

1. Spiritual individualism threatens biblical community.

“Just as our bodies have many parts and each part has a special function, so it is with Christ’s body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other.”

ROMANS 12:4-5

“Distance from Christian community is a sure sign of distance from Jesus Himself.”

DISTIN WILLIS | Life in Community

1. Spiritual individualism threatens biblical community.

“Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep his promise. Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near.”

HEBREWS 10:23-25

2. Accountability, encouragement, and discipleship require community.

“Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep his promise. Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near.”

“As iron sharpens iron, so a friend sharpens a friend.”

PROVERBS 27:17

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful.”

2 TIMOTHY 4:7

2. Accountability, encouragement, and discipleship require community.

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us.”

HEBREWS 12:1

“God decided in advance to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ. This is what he wanted to do, and it gave him great pleasure.”

EPHESIANS 1:5
